SWOT Committee Update

- Group 1 – A meeting has been setup with Bill Matula for June 18.
- Group 2 – An invitation letter went out about 10 days ago. One pastor responded negatively, citing lack of focus and confusion on intent, and others agreed. Father met with them face to face and explained the purpose, but they were still not open. The co-op meeting has been canceled as a result.
- Group 3 – Six members attended the first Saturday Mass; next one is June 7. Living Rosary was attended by 5 or so.
- Group 4 – Not much new to report. They will work on moving forward for next meeting.

An update from each group will occur at the next meeting.

St. Cletus 50th Anniversary Celebration

- A list of events being considered – invite former deacons/priests to come back to celebrate, four major events: homecoming with snacks/dinner, something based around the picnic, Mass with bishop on 9/12 (5pm), something on Christ the King weekend.
- Minor events are also being considered – pictorial directory, mission, ice cream social. They want to try to increase participation in the 7/4 parade.
- 12 people attended the first meeting and will meet again next month.

Pastor's Time

- Fr. said he was pleased with the picnic outcome, though financials won't be known for a month or two.
- Stewardship committee may ask Dave Baranowski (Archdiocese Stewardship Director) to come to next stewardship meeting on 7/29. They will ask ministry heads to revisit the tri-folds introduced last year.
- Suppers8 has 25 participants, including Fr. and Msgr.
