And he was transfigured before his clothes became white as light.

ST. IGNATIUS

MY LAST BULLETIN MESSAGE TO YOU ALL AND SOME FINAL THOUGHTS:

With our bulletin deadline being Monday morning before the next Sunday, there is no way that our new pastor, Fr. Chris Holtmann, would have had the opportunity to compose an article for today so I took it upon myself to say farewell, to say thanks, and to wish you well. I want you to know that it has been my honor to have served as your pastor these last nineteen years. We have been a great team, and I can guarantee Fr. Chris that he is inheriting a great parish community. Now the community of St. Cletus is not perfect, but I wish and pray that St. Cletus will continue to grow into the parish that Jesus wants it to be. I am most grateful for the support that you showed me a couple of Sunday's ago when we celebrated by retirement, and I hope to respond personally to all of those who gave me any form of a gift, but please forgive me if I am not able to do so. I don't know if it was the Jesuit Fr. John Kavanaugh or Fr. David Knight who said that "All comparisons are necessarily diabolical," but I think he is right. The natural tendency is to compare. While natural, it can be very destructive. Every priest is unique and one-of-a kind with his own special talents but also his own personal deficiencies as with any set of human beings. Please honor Fr. Chris for his talents. Please learn from him, but also please help him in the areas where he will need your help as you did me. As you know, I love to read the comic strips in the Post-Dispatch not just simply for their humor but also for the wisdom that they contain. Here are some final thoughts for you from me through them:

Most especially I hope that you all are always "filled with the joy of the Lord."

ALL THINGS NEW TOUCHES ST. CLETUS

Even though St. Cletus will remain as a stand-alone entity, we are still an integral part and not a separate, isolated part of the Catholic Church. As such, like our brothers and sisters in Christ, we will be experiencing change. For the past 6 years and even longer we have had the gift of 2 priests available to minister to us. As most already know beginning August 1, we will only have 1 priest. This change will, in the months ahead, affect many aspects of our lives and routines as we settle into a new way of doing things. The most immediate will be the Mass schedule.

The number and times for the Weekend Masses will remain unchanged for the immediate future. Saturday @ 5:00 PM, Sunday @ 7:30, 9:30, and 11:30 AM.

In the case of the weekday schedule, because the attendance at the 7:00AM Mass is 2 to 3 times greater than that of 8:00AM and because it is strongly encouraged that a priest follows the guidelines of celebrating only one Mass per day (except for Sundays, weddings, and funerals), beginning on Monday, August 7, there will no longer be an 8:00 AM Mass Monday through Saturday. Please note that there will be both a 7:00 and 8:00AM Mass when there is a school Mass, and it will be included in the weekly Mass schedule in the bulletin.

Also, because Communion Services are only supposed to take place when a priest is not available, beginning on Monday, August 7, there will be a Communion Service on Mondays @ 7:00AM and Saturdays @ 8:00AM.

The Liturgy of the Hours, Morning Prayer, will continue to be in the Day Chapel Monday through Saturday mornings beginning 15 minutes prior to the morning Liturgy in the Church.

Since having the opportunity to attend Mass and receive the Eucharist is critically important and valuable, please note the listing of Masses at our neighboring churches in the City of St. Charles.

For us and all Catholics our greatest challenge is to remain:

Steadfast in Faith/Forward in Hope/United in Love

Again, the purpose of putting these photos in our Sunday bulletin is to help us all familiarize ourselves with these new members so that we can give them a warm welcome when we meet them. By welcoming them, we strengthen our bonds as a family of faith.
