As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity, we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise. Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box (located at the rear of the church in the main aisle), will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

ON TRINITY SUNDAY, WE REFLECT ON THREE VERY DIFFERENT WAYS IT IS PRESENT TO US:

We cannot adequately name God, yet we experience the UNAPPROACHABLE MYSTERY inviting us to awe and drawing us close. Through creation and revelation, we can experience uncountable ways in which the unimaginable one lures us to share divine life. Now, we can bask in miniature glimpses of God. We await the day when "we will be like Christ because we will see him face to face" 1 Jn 3:2

IN THE OTHER:

All are welcome! And all means ALL!

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, LGBTQ, filthy rich, dirt poor, y no habla Inglés. We offer a special welcome to those who are skinny as a rail, could afford to lose a few pounds, or who have a crying baby. We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli, or like our pastor who can't carry a note in a bucket.

You're welcome here if you are "just browsing," just woke up, or just got out of jail. We don't care if you are more Catholic than the pope or haven't been to church since little Timmy's baptism. We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and teenagers who are growing up way too fast.

We welcome soccer moms, NASCAR dads, starving artists, tree huggers, latte sippers, vegetarians and junk food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery, and those who are still addicted. We welcome you if you are having problems or are down in the dumps. We've been there too. If you blew all your money at the racetrack or you don't like organized religion, you are welcome here.

We offer a special welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or came because Grandma is in town and wanted you to go to church. We welcome those who are inked, pierced, or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down your throat as a kid, or thought you were turning onto Highway 94 and wound up here by mistake.

We welcome the flexible, inflexible, the tolerant and intolerant, those who laughed at this welcome as well as those who gasped. We welcome tourists, seekers, doubters, bleeding hearts, and --- with all our hearts --- we welcome you!

IN THE SELF:

Children seem to get it. They seem to understand that God dwells in their hearts. Of course, if you asked them how they know this they may look at you with a confused look and not know how to respond. But, nonetheless, somehow they do understand that God dwells within them. So what would you say if someone asked you, "How do you know that God comes and makes His dwelling within you?" Perhaps you also may be at a loss for words to describe this incredible mystery of our faith. Do you believe this to be true? That God wants to make your heart and soul His dwelling place? If so, how does this happen?

By the gift of faith, we, like little children, just know that God wants to dwell within us. We know that He wants to possess our souls, speak to us, strengthen us, lead us and guide us. We know, by the gift of faith, that God is real and desires the deepest and most intimate relationship with us. We just know.

The good news is that faith leads to understanding. This means that the more we are attentive to the voice of God speaking within us, leading and guiding us, the more we begin to understand His indwelling presence. As St. Augustine said, "Faith is to believe what you do not see. The reward of faith is to see what you believe." Faith in God's indwelling presence leads us to the answer of the question above. The answer is one that God and God alone can give to us. We can share our faith with others, give witness to His presence in our lives, and give those around us the answer to that question through faith. How do I know God dwells within me? The answer: Because I see Him there, I speak to Him there, and He speaks to me.

Reflect, today, upon the Lord living within you. Let Him speak to you and, in that ever deepening conversation, allow His Indwelling Presence to grow and to become manifest to others. God wants to not only dwell within you, He also wants to shine through you.

Pilgrimage of Beauty

St. Charles

Each visit will feature a prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, a short history of the church tour, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This is a wonderful opportunity to recognize and appreciate the truth and beauty of the Sacrament of the Eucharist as it is mirrored in the beauty of the treasures of the church!

The journal "A Passport to the Eucharist" will be given to participants and enable them to record their reflections after each visit!

St. Cletus Corpus Christi Procession

Sunday June 11

Starting as the 11:30 Mass ends

Processing around the Parish grounds Concludes with Benediction in Church

The Feast of Corpus Christi, now known as the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is the celebration of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. When the Eucharist is carried through the streets in a solemn procession (in our case the parish grounds), the Catholic Christian people give public witness of their faith and devotion to the sacrament of the Eucharist. It is a sign of our unity in the Mystical Body of Christ.

MONTHLY ROSARY FOR HEALING AND HOPE

Please join us in the Daily Chapel, 6:00-6:30 p.m. on the First Tuesday of each month as we come together to pray the Rosary for your special intentions. There will also be opportunity to place your prayer intentions at the altar in the prayer basket.

The next gathering will be June 6.

“Where two or three are gathered, there I am...”
